

GTC / HOUSE RULES

DIE KÜCHE

What is possible?

Our rooms are well suited for a smaller party.

Experience has shown that the best number of people to gather around a table is 12, with a maximum of 15 and a little more crowded.

If more participants are planned, you will have to split the tables or make a buffet, which can also be quite nice.

We would not recommend more than 18-20 participants.

Important to know:

RUDIMARIE + missismiller is located in a residential building and we draw your attention to the fact that consideration must be shown to the residents.

For a tranquil little party with music at room volume, we are certainly the right place, but unfortunately not for a raucous party with loud music.
